The Ehlers-Danlos Society welcomes the support of those willing to offer a discount or special offer to our community. These resources are intended for those living with Ehlers-Danlos syndromes and hypermobility spectrum disorders, and are provided by sponsors of The Ehlers-Danlos Society—companies and organizations who contribute to the Society and/or offer substantive discounts to our members.

Examples might be:

- Offering a 10% discount on a mobility aid along with a $5 donation to the Society;
- Offering a donation of $20 to the Society for each purchase of a wheelchair;
- A 20% discount on an EDS-friendly service.

We have established a home on our web site, <https://www.ehlers-danlos.com/sponsored-resources/>, where those with EDS and HSD can find these resources. To participate, please fill out an application at <https://www.ehlers-danlos.com/how-to-become-a-sponsored-resource/> with your information. You will be notified by email of your acceptance or refusal. Please note that The Ehlers-Danlos Society does not endorse any products.

A listing is taken from information provided by you, and generically looks like the sample image on the previous page.
